

DATA PROTECTION AND INFORMATION SECURITY POLICY

2Conenct Telecommunications Infrastructure & Network Services Ltd. (hereinafter: Company) has set itself the goal of providing high-quality network and data center infrastructure services for telecommunications, technical and complete information and communications / IT systems, thereby ensuring the smooth and efficient servicing of wholesale telecommunications partners and electronic communications service providers.

To achieve this goal, the Company, taking into account the needs of the parties concerned and changes in the operating environment, ensures the protection of the interests of its partners and the rights and fundamental freedoms of natural persons, and in order to ensure clean, lawful and secure operation, maintains and develops the protections of personal data and information security in connection with the provision of its services in accordance with professional and international expectations.

The Company is committed to taking all measures to ensure the protection of personal data in the course of providing its services, with particular regard to the requirements of fair, lawful and transparent data processing and the exercise of the rights of the data subject, and the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of all information and system components. The Company considers these principles to be fundamental values and is also committed to applying the regulations, recommendations, and procedures that establish and further strengthen the security of its systems and services.

To this end, in line with the organization's business strategy management, the Company defines its data protection and information security requirements and controls in such a way that they provide on adequate response to the risks that threaten the achievement of its objectives. The data protection and information security framework operated by the Company promotes the secure operation of services and seeks to prevent events that threaten them and reduce risks.

2Connect Telecommunications Infrastructure & Network Services Ltd. consciously strives to minimize its impact on climate change and to decouple the effectiveness of its activities from the effects of climate change.

In order to meet these requirements and operate the controls introduced, the Company's senior management provides the resources, establishes the relevant areas of responsibility, and formulates and appropriately records the necessary procedures and processes so that they are known and applicable to all concerned.

Budapest, 2026.01.23.

Papp-Gerlei Gyöngyvér
Chief Executive Officer